POLICE KEEPING CLOSE WATCH ON OLD MRS. STENTON

Was Strong Enough a Year Ago, They Say, to Drive a Man Away from House with an Axe Herself.

FOUND ZION CITY

MILLIONS BEHIND,

Bank Had $500,000 Deposits, but Not a Dollar to Meet Claims.

A BIG CORPORATION

You May Say It Corrupts

Public Officials

Senate of the United States

sandbags and daggers hid in her home? to before were inserted in the news-The finding of the remarkable collect tion of goods declared to have been stolen, the sand bags used by highwaymen, the daggers with the spring catches and other significant paraphernalia has furnished a series of remarkable disclosures at least to the police of the career of Mrs. Stenton-if not actually throwing light on the crime of tives to get Mrs. Stenton into their offi-cial control so that the third degree may be administered. The police do not believe that the old woman is senile. most remarkable woman and a natural

Shielding the Murderer.

"If Mrs. Stenton chose to, she could have the mystery of her daughter's Judge MacLean Holds that harder in five minutes. She knows who killed Mrs. Alice Kinnan, and she has withheld this knowledge to protect her-self, as well as to shield the murderer. legitimate business and that she has had male associates. Mother and The Farbenfabrican of Elberfeld Comdaughter have been mixed up in strange pany, which is a wholesale drug concern,

Price, chief of the Bronx Deterive Bu-reau, was hade last night after the ods, the $50,000 being at the rate of $10.the old mansion at No. 2464 Washington in the Circular in 1904-1905.

Evenue, in the Bronx, and had found in The Druggists' Circular demarked to the arteries of his wrists.

Buried with Bible in Her Hands. County, Ind., took place a few days made b her a few moments before in the litner famly for more than 100 years was placed in her hands and buried with her

STRAUSS MUST PAY HIS WILD SAYS, IN CLOSET ROSE $14,800 AT MRS. LOVETTS

for Broken Heart of Miss Lesch.

VOLIVA SWEARS

Sweet Darling Rose.

T found that $2,000,000 had been directed and that the losses of operating the different industries up to that time immunited to $2,529,800.

T found that the laboring men were ecciving only enough to exist upon the time were paid in coupon, and when I assumed management about $30,000 in these coupons were outstanding. Tourist many people at the verge of the armone in Australia of the found many people at the verge of the strength of the second o in another court.

Justice Hascall would not allow a postponement, and Mr. Kaffenburgh and Mr. Strauss left the court, after which the "trial" went on without

Miss Lisch took the witness stand and Miss Lisch took the witness stand and told in briefest manner of her broken romance. She exhibited a diamond engagement ring which her Ben had placed on her finger to seal their engagement, and denied that she had ever released him from the engagement, but said that he had gained such complete control of her heart that only his marriage to her could set her right.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Telson, of Eagle street, Bronx, testified that the engagement party was held at their house, and as there was no defense the case was given to the jury.

MADE A TOURNIQUET WITH A NIGHTSTICK.

aughter have been mixed up in strange pany.

Sued the Druggists' Circular Company Daniel L. Skinner, aged fifty years, a laborer who lives at No. 1531 Brook avelaborer who lives at No. 1531 Brook avelaborer. nue, the Bronx, attempted suicide in police had discovered a secret room in on each for five articles which appeared this morning by breaking a tin drinking and elsewhere in the house evidences each of the five counts on the ground. When Doorman Hogan made his sperate as murder.

Capt. Price to-day declined to give the Justice MacLean, in sustaining $20,000 hour later Doorman Carney, who had venis the nature of the articles to Brennan, who with the aid of night This man furnished the clue which led to the discovery of the secret room. But Capt Price volunteered this information:

"This man believed positively that both mother and daughter were engaged in some illegitimate business, whether smuggling or counterfeiting he could be seen to the plaintiff, but the charge and the plaintiff, but the charge in the matter of charge and reflection, if believed, to injure the business of the plaintiff, but the charge in the man's wrists nearly severed.

Made Certain of Death. Hyman Skellman, forty-five years old so to give his wrists with a razor and turning on shed from the gas. No cause, except despendency, it, cannot is known for the dead.

LAST GAME OF

ury Assessed Damages Mrs. Hastings Tells About Cincinnati Captures Final Battle by a Score of 3 to 1.

Early Morning Visit to Millionaire's Wife.

GRANT HID, SHE

On Easter Monday morning, 1903, she aid, Henry L. Hess came around be-

"They called it 'one of those' in the drug store," she said, "and it was made of whiskey and bitters with a cherry in it."

Henry L. Hess, the friend who was delivering the mohey order at Mrs. Hastings's room on Easter Monday morning, took the stand and corroborated her testimony.

McIntyre swung at three like a tendered and Twenty-third street.

"Do you conduct a store there?" inley was another victim on strikes, Schiel throwing his third strike to Barry. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

McIntyre swung at three like a tendered and Twenty-third street.

"Do you conduct a store there?" inquired the Magistrate.

"No, sir. The stolen property was a small part of my personal wardrobe." in Latest Styles for Every Figure.

Prices, 25c. to $5.00;

morning, took the s

morning, took the stand and corroborated her testimony.

Withdraws One Charge.

After announcing that the plaintiff rested, Lawyer Baldwin explained that he wished to accede to the defense's motion made early in the case to strike out allegations of misconduct by Mrs. Lovett on board the Clyde Line steamship froquois
Lawyer Ketcham in opening for the defense said he would disprove every charge of the plaintiff. He said that Mrs. Lovett had been subjected to a "a flood of scandal" since June 15, 1956.

Barry, No Reys.

Fourth Inning.

Delehanty drove a liner to left and stopped at the first corner. Odwell sacrificed, Meintyre throwing him out by several feet. Corcoran was disposed of on his bounder by Casey and Jordan, Delehanty moving to third. Schlei was thrown out at first by Casey. NO RUNS.

Lovett on board the Clyde Line steamship froquois
Lawyer Ketcham in opening for the defense said he would disprove every charge of the plaintiff. He said that Mrs. Lovett had been subjected to a "a flood of scandal" since June 15, 1956.

But Y. No Ruth Inning.

Delehanty drove a liner to left and stopped at the first corner. Odwell sacrificed, Meintyre throwing him out by several feet. Corcoran was disposed of on his bounder by Casey and Jordan, Delehanty moving to third. Schlei was thrown out at first by Casey. NO RUNS.

Jordan hit a slow one to the infield and easily reached the bag. He tried to steal second, but was caught by Schlei's throw to Corcoran. Bergen's high fly to the infield was caught by Delehanty. Maloney was retired on his grounder by Corcoran and Barry. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Fifth Inning.

WOULD BELIEVE MAN
WHO TOLD ON WOMAN
When the divorce case of Louis P.
Schroeter, a wealthy real estate dealer of Flatbush, against his wife, Ella B., was called in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn to-day the same question was put to talesmen as in the Lovet case, "Would you believe a co-respondent who teetlieved against the woman."
At least half a dozen followed the lead of the thritten in the Lovett case, although it rurned out that the co-respondent who had the three half by supress at Wicker's straight of the three half by saying at Wicker's straight of the result of a clue given by a neighbour, and were hunted down by Detectives Enright and Tevery, of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street only station.

Alternative properties of Flatbush, against his wife, Ella B., was called in the Supreman was quickly retired by Corrosan and Barry, Lewis sent a fly into expondent who teestified against the woman."

At least half a dozen followed the lead of the thritten in the Lovett case, and delared such a man was not to be believed under oath. They were extused, although it rurned out that the co-respondent, William Oakford, a real estate of the highest. The Schroeter were only ordinary, and that her character was of the highest. The Schroeters have a boy seven years old. They were married in 1897 and went to live at Hempstead, at that the co-respondent worked for his fether, a butcher, and delivered meat at the Schroeter house.

WED UNDER THE FLAC.

WICKE lifted one into the air and thummel railed the ball when it came down to take the ball when it came down to the wheth the came and the came of the West. The Mannel mailed the ball when it came down to the wheth which and the came of the West. The Schroeter were the ball when it came down to the which and the came of the West. The Schroeter were the was of the highest. The Schroeter were the work of the highest. The Schroeter were the work of the highest of the three highest one to centre, which Mainoney got under after a sprint. Barry who can be the three highest

WED UNDER THE FLAG ON LAWN IN THE OPEN.

STAMFORD, Conn., June 20.-Capt. Edward E. Pelton and Miss Mary Woodroff Leet were married this after noon' on the lawn at the Soldiers Home, Noroton Heights, the ceremony Home, Noroton Heights, the ceremony, which was novel and picturesque, being performed by Rev. George H. Pelton, of Centre Brook, a brother of the bridegroom. The best man was Major William Spittle and the matron of honor was Mrs. Edward F. Taylor, a daughter of Capt, Pelton. The captain is adjutant at the Home.

The bridal party gathered about the flagstaff on the green at 1.39 o'clock, and grouped about them were a number of invited guests, together with a large number of veterans from the Home. RUSSIAN STOCKS SLUMP.

So William O. Allison and his trade sper are excused from defending the harges that the Furbenfachlean of liberteld Company had corrupted Government officials, but must defend the her support of Imperial Fours, which when the bankers withdrew their support of Imperial Fours, which hier support of Imperial Fours, which their support of Imperial Fours, which there is the fell to 72. closing an eighth better. Fives touched 881-2. Lotteries have fallen 30 held on the green.

After the ceremony a reception was held on the green.

BROOKLYNS LOSE

BATTING ORDER.

Seymour, Kelley, If. Barry, Ib.

Fourth Inning.

Schlei was thrown out by Alperman. Wicker lifted one which Maloney grabbed on the run. Huggins flied to Maloney. NO RUNS. rabled on the run. Hugan talcaey. NO RUNS.

Bergen swatted a line fly to Kelley in leep left. Maloney fanned. Alperman flit to Delehanty and on the latter's wild throw to first Alperman reached the Tombs and was held in $5,000 by Magistrate Cornell for the Grand Jury fundaments. wild throw to first Alberman reached second. Lewis soaked a liner to centre for a base, sending Alberman over the plate. Hummel fouled out to Delehanty. ONE RUN.

Eighth Inning.

Lewis made a great stop of Seymour's ball over second and threw him out. Kelley hit a slow one and was disposed of by McIntyre and Jordan. Barry

RUNS.

Melodyre grounded to Huggins and died at first. Casey bunted unsuccessfully, Schlet throwing him out. Lumby drew a free to first. Jordan popped up one which Delahanty grabbed. NO BUNS. Ninth Innina.

Delehanty filed to Lewis. Odwell was called out on strikes. Corcoran drove a fly to Hummel. NO RUNS.

Bergen fouled out to Schlei. Maloney was out, Huggins to Barry. Alperman out, Wicker to Barry. NO RUNS.

FOOD BRAINS

Grape-Nuts

a mining expert in Los Angeles an alleges that he commissioned Jackso to sell some property to the Exploration Company, of New York, in January, 1965. He said that Jackson receive $54,000, but turned over to Karns only 1965.

JARRED THE COURT

The Magistrate wiped his brow, shoo

A Charming Breakfast Dish.

Find and read "The Road to

Twelfth Day at Gravesend. Track Fair

From Dreadful Pains From Wound

MIRACULOUS CURE BY

TIRED OF LIFE

on Foot-System All Run Down

After Six Months' Agony-Not Able to Work - Completely Cured

CUTICURA REMEDIES

In Two Weeks

not improve, you can readily imagine how I felt. I was simply disgusted and tired of life. I stood this pain, which was dreadful, for six months, and during this time I was not able to

Atterbury Axioms. Atterbury System Clothes

$20 to $45. Make broad claims - and prove each one by test. of wear.

Ready - to-wear

39-41 Cortlandt Street, 183 Broadway

THE OXYGEN TOILET POWDER. RELIEVES UMMEDIATELY PRICKLY HEAT, HIVES, CHAFES AND ASSURES A REALTHFUL SKIN AND COMPLEXION. At All Druggists

IT'S ALL IN THE OXYGEN CANCER

ORMONT CHEMICAL CO. N.Y.

WOMEN'S AUTOMOBILE GARMENTS AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

LINDAU, 933 Broadway, near 22d | St.

DIED.

HIGGINS.—At St. Francis's Hospital, June 19, JAMES HIGGINS, beloved father of Mary Higgins, of No. 138 East 80th st. Notice of funeral hereafter.

Brooklyn. Below 22d St. | Actor House.

5 Cortlandt Street. near Broadway.

BOHERTY.—On Monday evening. June 18, at her residence, 202 Pulaski st., Brocklyn. MARGARET DOHERTY, beloved wife of Charles Doherty, and mother of William H., Thomas F. and Elizabeth L. Doherty and Therese C.

Haggerty.
Funeral from her late residence, 202
Funeral from her late residence, 202
Funeral from her late residence, 202 Pulasai st., Brooklyn, on Thursday, June 21, at 10.30 A. M.; thence to St.

Ambrose's Church, corner De Kaib and Tompkins avs., where a solemn requiem mass will be offered for the repose of her soul. Relatives and friends respect-

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS.

LOST-Pair of gold eyeglasses, with chain and pin. Fin' in he liberally re;

Big Corset Sale.

"LYNCH HER!" CROWD

CRIED AT WOMAN

Worth $2.00 to $25.00 Each. Also Sample and Unclaimed Orders LA GRECQUE

Tailored Underwear. ombination Drawers and Corset Cover Combination Skirt and Corset Cover &c., of Nainsook, India Linon. Under-

Prices, 75c. to $6,00; Worth $2.50 to $20 Each. Don't want one left, so are closing them out at these unusual bargain prices VAN ORDEN CORSET CO., 26 West 23d Street.

Eye Glasses? Not Unless Needed. Often as low as ONE DOLLAR, Always at Moderate Prices, Our REGISTERED PHYSICIANS will examine your eyes—Without Charge.

Ehrlich & Sons Oculists and Opticians

Established Nearly 50 Years.

223 Sixth Ave., | 1274 Broadway. 350 Sixth Ave., 217 Broadway,

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY FOR WOMAN'S ILLS IN THE WORLD.

No Extra. Charge for it. Advertisements for The World may be left at any American District Messenger Office